2. SAVE AFTERSCHOOL: Letters Needed TODAY!

I just got this today, so apologize for short notice. Share with families, parents, administrators, your supporters, staff, friends.

Save After School

Legislative Hearings Begin

The budget request to increase the ASES daily rate to $9.25 will be discussed by several legislative committees over the next 2 months. To be successful, we need your help each step of the way. Here is what you can do TODAY:

- Speak in support on March 13: The Assembly Budget Subcommittee on Education hearing will begin at 9 AM at the State Capitol, Room 447. Let us know if you can come; we can walk you through the process and give you updates on the agenda.
- Write a letter: We have created a letter of support template that you can customize and send on your organization's letterhead. Email your letter to us and we can submit the letter to the Assembly Budget Subcommittee on Education for you. Letters are due by 3 PM on Wednesday, March 7.

- Ask your networks and communities to show their support by writing a letter and attending the hearing. If you need additional information on the budget request, check out our factsheets.

March, Rally, Talk with Legislators: May 14-15, 2018

Join hundreds of after school providers, students, families, and other advocates in Sacramento on May 14-15 to tell policymakers why and how they can Save Afterschool. At the annual CA Afterschool & Summer Challenge, you will:

- Stand with supporters from across California to march and rally at the State Capitol
- Share your needs and priorities with policymakers in meetings
- Receive customized advocacy training based on your previous experience
- Network with advocates from your community, region, and around the state to build a base of support and coordinate future efforts

Bring Youth: Now, more than ever, it is critical for youth to get civically engaged. We have a special advocacy introduction for youth participants to educate and inspire. You can bring one student or you could bring a bus full - the power of their words and the self-confidence that will grow is immeasurable.
