

GUIDE TO IMPLEMENTING THE LEARNING IN AFTERSCHOOL & SUMMER (LIAS) LEARNING PRINCIPLES –

LEARNING THAT IS ACTIVE, COLLABORATIVE, MEANINGFUL, SUPPORTS MASTERY, AND EXPANDS HORIZONS.

The LIAS project has published a 118-page guide to help programs implement activities that reflect the LIAS learning principles. It includes descriptions of each principle, ways that programs can begin, an observation rubric, example activities from exemplar programs in California, and training exercises that programs can use to introduce these principles to their staff. This guide is available for review and purchase.

Full color copies of the Guide can be purchased for $30, plus shipping & handling. To order the Guide, you can send this form by mail to Temescal Associates, 467 Rich Street, Oakland, CA 94609 or by fax 510-654-7798. You will be contacted to confirm your order and verify total amount.
