Expanded Learning English Learner Work Group Description

The Expanded Learning English Learner Work Group (ELWG) is a subcommittee of the Region 11 Expanded Learning Unit at the Los Angeles County Office of Education. Convened in 2009, its mission is to raise awareness about how to meet the needs of English Learners in Expanded Learning Programs.

The ELWG meets following the Advisory Committee Meetings held at the county office. In the past six years the group has hosted symposiums, facilitated trainings, and participated in advocacy work on behalf of English Learners.
